Offensive Strategies (in order of preference)

Steal: Andrus, Kipnis, and Zobrist are the main threats. They have the green light to attempt steals of second from the 3rd inning on in games that are within 2 runs either way. If your catcher has a negative arm, they can attempt steals of third as the tying/lead run with 1 out 8th inning or later.

Hit and Run: Not a lot of H&R potential on this year's team. We'll be looking to H&R with our lineup as designated in the lineups above. Do not hit and run if your pitcher's control is worse than -26 on the board game or has a W on the computer.

Sacrifice: 8th or 9th place hitter at bat, 7th inning or later, tied or behind by one run, no outs, runners on second, or first and second. Don't squeeze.

Runner Advancement: Board Game- check Adams Tables. Computer Game- try for the extra base when "well around", otherwise hold.

Pinch hitting/pinch running: It's not a very strong bench. Pinch hitting options will be at third base and catcher. Moore and Castro vs RHRP; Descalso and Baker vs. LHRP. Cousins only attribute is his speed - use him as a pinch-runner for Buck, Castro, or Lee as the tying/winning run 8th inning or later. Get the best defense afterward.

Pitching Strategies

Starters: As usual, never remove a starter pitching a shutout and never let a starter pitch more than 11.7 innings. If the starter gets pounded out, Loe is the preferred choice. Otherwise, here are the general guidelines:

Fister, Wandy, McCarthy, Arroyo: We'd like to see them reach their fatigue limits, but if downgraded before then and the game is within reach (down 3 or less), then look to the pen. If down by 4 or more, keep them in the game and if it gets within three then get the bullpen warmed up.

Leake and Porcello: If they make it to the 6th without being downgraded and the game is +/- 3, go to the pen. If the margin is more than three either way, they stay on the mound. If it tightens up later on, go to the pen.

Relievers: Furbush is the closer and should start the 9th in save situations. He'll be set-up in the 8th by O'Day, and Robertson. Middle relief will be handled by a variety of relievers in any given month. Use them as you see fit. It'll be important to take advantage of the +5 on the boards. Loe will be the mop-up men in blowouts (down 5 runs; 7th or later).

Defensive Strategies

Holding runners on 1st: Never hold if score is +5/-5. Otherwise, always hold with two out or with PL at bat. If less than two out and SA or PR at bat, hold if base SSN is greater than 18 and the runner has steal attempts remaining.

Play infield in: Play in 8th inning or later if the Jets are behind by less than two or up one.

Outfield Throws: Always throw for go-ahead run 8th inning or later. Board Game -Throw for lead runner with less than 33/36 chances, otherwise throw to hold trailing runners. Computer game- always throw for slow lead runner, throw for average and fast lead runners unless "well around", otherwise throw to hold trailing runners.

Defensive replacements: None worth mentioning.

Minor League Assignments (subject to monthly instructions): In addition to the uncarded Gardner, Pridie, Anderson, McClellan, Ruffin and Slowey:

April: Hudson, Porcello, Cousins, Marte

May: Hudson, McCarthy, Cousins, Layne

June: Hudson, Porcello, Cousins, Layne

July: Hudson, Fister, Cousins, Marte

August: Hudson, McCarthy, Cousins, Layne

September: Hudson, Porcello, Cousins, Layne

October: Hudson, McCarthy, Cousins, Layne

November: all up

Conclusion:

Without much punch in the lineup and a mediocre starting rotation, it's going to be long season in Columbus. Do the best you can to make us competitive and we'll be satisfied. If something isn't covered or doesn't make sense, do what you think is right.

Enjoy the season!
