Starters are generally to pitch until fatigued, but that's generally. If the game is close and there is a critical at bat, bring in the relief staff to get a critical out.

Bullpen

Javier Lopez is the closer for Rye. He gets one inning save attempts.

Hughes and Smith are the set-up men in the 7th and 8th. Hawkins and Neshek are the long men for the 5th and 6th. Use all five relievers regularly to get the bumps.

Don't worry about innings. I'll worry about that.

Offense

Hit and Run – Rye wants to use the H&R this year. We have ten guys with 2 -31's. With one of them up, a guy on first and 0 or 1 out, consider the H&R with a net steal number of 24 on first. If ahead or behind by 2 or more, don't use the H&R.

Stealing – Kemp F33 and DeShields D29 can steal a base if REALLY needed late to tie or win a game. Generally, use the H&R instead.

Base Advances – Use the Adams Tables.

Bench –Kemp and Souza can pinch run if a run is needed late. Kemp can pinch hit for one of the catchers in a close game late. Tomlinson can pinch hit and come in to play second against a left handed reliever in a game +/- one run. Maybe.

Defensive Replacements – From the 6th on, if Rye is ahead, get Hunter in in right and Souza in in left and Ishikawa comes in for Morales to play first base. Realmuto comes in to catch replacing Ruiz in the 7th on in close game against teams with reasonable steal potential.

Good luck. Anything not covered by these sparse instructions, use your best judgment.

I will send instructions each month, except for the first month. These are good to go for April.
