2022 LAS. VEGAS. GAMBLERS. PLAYGUIDE

PITCHERS

ALL STARTERS SHOULD PITCH THRU FIVE INNINGS unless injured, ejected or pounded out. There just isn't enough good bullpen to try and salvage every game in the 3rd or 4th inning. Six starters (Mahle, Irvin, Giolito, Plesac, Gutierrez and Alzolay) make all 162 starts, leaving starters like E. Hernandez and H. Castellanos free to work out of the bullpen exclusively. Hernandez will act as Cole Irvin's caddy. If Irvin leaves before the 5th, Hernandez should be first out of the chute. when active Castellanos can come in early or late in mopup situations. Chris Martin is also good for multi-innings clean up duty. If, by some miracle, we reach the 6th and are nursing a lead, there is not a lot of help in the 'pen, but the quiet quartet of Sims, T. Hill, Jiminez and Maton will succede occasionally. Las Vegas will start the year with Caleb Baragar, a wild lefty GR*18 reliever with only 23 innings (and is an XC). After he runs dry Albert Abreu will try to save games for the Gamblers. we hope to be active on the waiver wire.

Use Sims as the closer and A.Abreu as setup.

PINCH HITTING

VS. lefties Andy Young has a funky power card. Ward is good against LHP's as well VS. righties Urias is good here.

PINCH RUNNING

Berti and Bradley here mostly.

DEFENSE

If the Gamblers lead after we bat in the 8th or later, bring in Berti for Alonso, playing 2B and move LeMahieu over to 1B. JBJ can come in for any OF2 in CF. Whichever catcher starts should finish the games, unless ejected or injuries. Taylor Ward is the 3rd string catcher.

DON'T H&R OR STRAIGHT STEAL THIS YEAR! There isn't enough this year, so I'll use those tools in home games.

The Gamblers use cards for the 26th straight season!

Anything that I failed to cover is left to your fair baseball judgement.

Good luck.
